

Where adhesives beat mechanical fasteners

This is the title of a new technical article which I have just put up on our Technical bulletins & articles page. It was written by Nicole Langer, who is the Adhesives Technology Manager with our sales partners, DYMAX Corp.

Nicole gives a very good overview of the standard types of structural adhesives which are available to designers, giving the inevitable pros and cons of each.

Download Nicole's article here (it's a 611Kb pdf file).
