

Coming soon - news at Nepcon

It seems to be trade show season. Having just spent a good day exhibiting at the Fastening & Assembly Solutions Exhibition last week (there was a record turnout), we are in preparation for the next show in just a few weeks time.

We'll have a big and exciting product launch at Nepcon this year, May 15-17 at the NEC Birmingham. Click on the link to register for the show, and we'll see you there!
