

End of a great year!

This week saw the end of our financial year, with record sales and other financial targets met or exceeded. We continue to re-invest in our people and infrastructure in order to grow our list of very happy customers.

All the members of our team are integral and vital to our success, and the business owes them all huge thanks for their considerable efforts. But we might just share the plaudit of Sales Team of the Month with Steve and Matt, who broke through their stretch targets in September. They handle our northern territory, including the north of England and Scotland. They know they will face sizeable competition from the other sales teams to win the trophy this month!

End of a great year!
