

A fun and rewarding week for the Intertronics team

It has been a great week at Intertronics HQ! Here are some highlights:

Having been a part of the Intertronics team for 25 years, our Technical Manager, Paul Whitehead, was rewarded this past weekend with a trip to The Open in Troon. He was accompanied by his wife, Carol, and they enjoyed the hospitality so much, they're already planning on going again next year! Paul is a pivotal part of our team, and we're pleased that he and Carol enjoyed themselves, even if Rory McIlroy couldn't pull off a win in their honour.

On Tuesday, we held our semi-annual Company Meeting – an opportunity for us to update each other on our activities and goals, and have a bit of fun as a team. The highlight of the afternoon was some Segway racing. Our abilities varied quite widely, but amongst a few wobbly starts and some minor crashes, Internal Sales Executive Matt Baseley took the trophy.

Each company meeting features an Award for Excellence, given to the person or team who have had particular stellar performance over the past six months. This time, the award went to Guy Patching and James Heydon from our Order Fulfillment Team, for the number of improvements they have made to the process of getting your orders out on time, as well as their brilliant customer service. Thank you and congratulations, Guy and James!
