We receive an Appreciation Award from key partner, Thinky

At the recent Thinky European sales meeting in Oxford, we absolutely delighted to be presented with this Appreciation Award. It reads:

We would like to express our heartfelt thanks to you for being actively engaged in the sales activity and making great contributions to the sales of our products over the years. We hereby present this certificate in recognition of your dedication and commitment.

We are clear on some fundamentals about our business which this reflects.

We carefully choose suppliers to work with who not only have great products, but also share our values. Our shared values have a deep customer focus. Succeeding in the market depends on leveraging each other's strengths in powerful partnerships. When all this aligns, it is relatively easy for us to be dedicated and committed.

We are very grateful to Thinky Corporation for our partnership in selling THINKY Mixing and Degassing Machines.
